

Connecticut Magazine's Best of CT 2022: Shopping + Services

BEST OF CONNECTICUT EDITORS' PICKS

155 winners, including our Editors' Picks and the results of our Readers' Choice poll.

BY MICHELLE BODAK ACRI, JOE AMARANTE, ANN LOYND BURTON, DOUGLAS P. CLEMENT, ANDREW DOMINICK, JAMES GRIBBON, BRIAN LANCE, CHIP MCCABE, JENN RECORD, JOHN ROCHE, LINDA TUCCIO-KOONZ, MIKE URBAN, ANDREA VALLUZZO, BEKAH WRIGHT | JUNE 27, 2022 | UPDATED: JUNE 28, 2022 11:19 AM

Ann Loynd Burton

RECORD/CD SHOP

Vinyl Street Cafe

1895 Post Road, Fairfield

Vinyl Street Cafe describes itself as “Your Indie Record Store and More,” and that couldn’t be more accurate. The Post Road location is stuffed to the gills (as all vinyl shops should be) with new and used LPs in every category, including pop, rock and soundtracks. Find collectible records or simply dig through the 99-cent bins.

The friendly and helpful staff doesn’t mind when your toddler touches everything and might even offer them a teddy bear. You might even purchase a Baby Kiss board book that becomes a favorite for both toddler and dad. — ALB

vinylstreetcafe.com • 203-292-5785

